TOURNAMENT PREVIEW – NADAL MAKES RETURN, CHILEAN DEBUT; MONACO DEFENDS TITLE

- The VTR Open presented by Cachantun is the first clay-court tournament of the ATP World Tour season and also the opening leg of the four-tournament swing through Latin America. This is the second straight year the tournament is held in Viña del Mar.

- Top seed, World No. 5 and wild card Rafael Nadal makes his return to the ATP World Tour and plays his first tournament in seven months. He is playing his first pro tournament in Chile. The former World No. 1 has not played a tour-level event since June 28, 2012, when he lost to Lukas Rosol in the second round at Wimbledon. The Spaniard has been side lined since with a left knee injury. He is scheduled to play in three of the four court tournaments, this week, then in Sao Paulo and Acapulco. Nadal has not played at an ATP World Tour tournament in South America since 2005. He has won 36 tour-level clay-court titles (36-4 in finals) and has the best career match record on clay in the Open Era with a 254-19 mark (.930). Nadal's appearance comes in doubles on Tuesday with Argentine Juan Monaco, followed by his opening singles on Wednesday.

- The other two wild cards were given to Chileans Nicolas Massu and Christian Garin. Massu is a two-time finalist (2006-07) and has a 14-14 career record in the event. Garin, the youngest player in the draw at 16 years, 1 month, is making his ATP World Tour debut.

- Other seeds in the field are: No. 2 Juan Monaco of Argentina, the reigning champion and two-time finalist (2008, '10), No. 3 Jeremy Chardy, who reached his first career Grand Slam quarter-final at the Australian Open (l. to Murray), followed by fellow Spaniards No. 4 Pablo Andujar and No. 5 Albert Ramos both of whom are looking for their first win of 2013 (0-3), No. 6 Paolo Lorenzi of Italy, No. 7 Daniel Gimeno-Traver of Spain, and No. 8 and last year's runner-up Carlos Berlocq of Argentina.

- On Monday's schedule, there are four final round qualifying matches and two singles main draw matches. The first main draw match features Martin Alund of Argentina facing Santiago Giraldo of Colombia for the first time. Alund is playing in his first career ATP World Tour match. He failed to qualify last year and in 2008. Giraldo is playing here for the third time (4-2) and he was a finalist in 2011 (l. to Robredo). The second match is a first-time ATP World Tour meeting between Argentina's Leonardo Mayer and Italy's Filippo Volandri. Mayer won the previous meeting at the Napoli Challenger in 2011. Mayer is playing here for the third time (1-2), lost 2R in 2012 (l. to Chardy). Volandri is making is fifth appearance (5-4) and his best result was the semi-finals in '05 (l. to Gonzalez)

About the ATP
The ATP is the governing body of the men's professional tennis circuits - the ATP World Tour, the ATP Challenger Tour and the ATP Champions Tour. With 62 tournaments in 32 countries, the ATP World Tour showcases the finest male athletes competing in the world's most exciting venues. From Australia to Europe and the Americas to Asia, the stars of the 2013 ATP World Tour will battle for prestigious titles and Emirates ATP Rankings points at ATP World Tour Masters 1000, 500 and 250 events, as well as Grand Slams (non ATP events). At the end of the season only the world's top 8 ranked singles players and doubles teams, based on their performance throughout the year, will qualify to compete for the last title of the season at the Barclays ATP World Tour Finals. Held at The O2 in London, the event will officially crown the 2013 ATP World Tour No.1 presented by Emirates. For more information, please visit www.ATPWorldTour.com.
