HIGHLAND SPRING EXTENDS PARTNERSHIP WITH BARCLAYS ATP WORLD TOUR FINALS THROUGH 2013

LONDON — The ATP and Highland Spring, the leading UK produced brand of bottled water, have signed a four-year agreement designating Highland Spring as the official water supplier to the Barclays ATP World Tour Finals.

The season-ending event of the ATP World Tour takes place this year at The O2 from 21–28 November and will feature the world's top eight singles players and doubles teams battling it out for the last title of the season.

Claire Wilson, Head of Sponsorship at Highland Spring, commented: "The Barclays ATP World Tour Finals is one of the biggest and most exciting events on the international sporting calendar and provides a fantastic platform for Highland Spring to strengthen its association with tennis. We are looking forward to supporting the event for the next four years and are delighted to be keeping the world's top eight players hydrated during the tournament."

Brad Drewett, Tournament Director of the Barclays ATP World Tour Finals, said: "The Barclays ATP World Tour Finals has quickly established a terrific home for itself in London, and having Highland Spring as official water supplier will further boost the reputation of the event."

The tournament is the climax of the men's professional tennis season and gives tennis fans the opportunity to see the top eight singles players and the top eight doubles teams battle it out for the coveted last title of the year. Rafael Nadal, Roger Federer, Novak Djokovic, Andy Murray and Robin Soderling have already qualified for this year's event.

Visitors to this year's tournament can also brush up on their own tennis skills by visiting the Highland Spring Hot Shots Tour which will be part of the new Fan Zone at The O2. Developed in association with the LTA, the interactive tennis feature will help budding players of all ages improve coordination and racquet skills with a range of fun and educational tennis games.

About the Barclays ATP World Tour Finals

The Barclays ATP World Tour Finals is the year-end climax to the men's professional tennis season, featuring only the world's best eight qualified singles players and doubles teams as they battle it out for the last title of the season. Players compete for South African Airways ATP Rankings points throughout the season in a bid to earn one of the eight coveted berths and a chance to win the $1.6m prize money on offer for the winner. Played using a round-robin format, each player plays three matches as they compete for a berth in the knockout semi-finals and beyond. The prestigious tournament has been contested in major cities around the world with a rich history dating back to the birth of The Masters in 1970 in Tokyo. Since 2000 the event has taken place in cities such as Lisbon, Sydney, and Shanghai. In 2009 the tournament was moved to London, where it will be played through 2013.
