Note: If the withdrawal was due to one or both members of the team being accepted into the main draw singles of another event, then neither player is subject to a fine.

- b) Fines shall be doubled in the case of any player who would have been seeded, based on the most recent Emirates ATP Rankings.
  - c) Third and subsequent withdrawals from the qualifying competition at an ATP World Tour Masters 1000 or ATP World Tour 500 tournament will be fined $250 or $500 if he would have been seeded based upon the most recent Emirates ATP Rankings. - 3) ATP World Tour 250, ATP World Tour Masters 1000 Qualifying and ATP World Tour 500 Qualifying. All fine amounts collected as a result of withdrawals or late withdrawals shall be returned to the tournament where the withdrawal or late withdrawal occurred.

D. Withdrawal Penalties

- 1) ATP World Tour 500. Any player withdrawing after the entry/withdrawal deadline shall have a ranking penalty assessed in accordance with procedures specified in the ranking section of this rule book. Players shall not have the ranking penalty assessed if they complete the requirements for "promotional activities"; are out of competition for 30 days; or the withdrawal complied with the requirements for an on-site withdrawal. Players may appeal withdrawal penalties to a Tribunal who will determine whether the penalties are affirmed or set aside.
- 2) ATP World Tour Masters 1000. Any player withdrawing from the main draw shall have a ranking penalty assessed in accordance with procedures specified in the ranking section of this rule book and be suspended from a subsequent ATP World Tour Masters 1000 event. This event shall be the event where the player earned the highest point total during the previous 12 months. Subsequent withdrawals will carry a second suspension from the next event where the player earned his second highest point total. Additional withdrawals will include further suspensions in the same manner. Players shall not have the suspension penalty assessed if they complete the requirements for "promotional activities" or the withdrawal complied with the requirements for an on-site withdrawal. Players may appeal suspension penalties to a Tribunal who will determine whether the penalties are affirmed or set aside (see sections J & K). Ranking penalties are automatic and cannot be appealed.

NOTE: If no 1000 results, the suspension would be from the next Masters 1000 event he was accepted as a Direct Acceptance.

E. Retirement or Withdrawal Penalty (On-Site)

- 1) A player who, because of injury or illness, retires during a match or withdraws during the tournament week must submit to an on-site medical examination by the designated tournament doctor. Any player who retires during a match must be examined by the tournament doctor prior to the end of play on the day of the retirement. Failure to submit to such examination shall be a violation of this section and shall subject a player to a fine at ATP World Tour tournaments of $10,000 ($2,500 for the qualifying competition) or at ATP Challenger Tour tournaments to a fine of $1,000, ($500 for the qualifying competition), or the amount of prize money won at the tournament, whichever is greater.
- 2) Following any on-site retirement or withdrawal, the supervisor at the next tournament in which the player wants to play, may require the player to submit to an on-site examination by the designated tournament doctor and receive authorization from the supervisor before competing in any future ATP World Tour and ATP Challenger Tour tournaments. The supervisor's authorization shall be based on the following: the results of the on-site medical examination; a review of such results with one of the ATP's medical services directors, if possible; and any other appropriate information.

VIII. THE CODE

- 3) Should a doubles match in an ATP World Tour or ATP Challenger Tour event be uncontested* or fail to be completed, the losing team shall only receive points and prize money from the previous round unless one of the following is applicable:
- a) Neither player was in the singles main draw;
  - b) Both players used, or could have used**, their doubles ranking for entry into the doubles draw (does not apply to wild card teams).
  - c) The retiring/withdrawing player is still in the singles competition and at the time of the medical examination is declared unfit to play in the singles of that event or, if no longer involved in the singles competition of that event, is forced to withdraw from the singles or doubles*** of the next tournament in which he is entered.
  - d) The retiring/withdrawing player had withdrawn/retired from his singles match, which was scheduled the same day; or, if the doubles match is scheduled for a following day the player is examined by the tournament doctor and is declared unfit for competition in the doubles event.
- * A team withdrawing from the first round will not receive prize money even if there is not an alternate team.
- ** Example: Player A is not in the singles draw and his doubles ranking is 20; his partner, Player B, is in the singles draw with a ranking of 15. Player B's doubles ranking is 30. The cutoff for their method of entry is 60. Using player B's doubles ranking would have kept them as a direct acceptance so they qualify for exception b) above.
- *** For ATP Challenger events the withdrawal for doubles must be after the withdrawal deadline.

No Medical? Big Mistake

Case: A player retires from his singles match and leaves the tournament site without having been examined by the tournament doctor. Later, it is discovered that the player has left the tournament city. What action does the supervisor take?

Decision: Any player who fails to submit to an on-site examination by the tournament doctor after retiring from a match shall be subjected to a fine of $10,000 ($1,000 for ATP Challenger Tour tournaments) or the amount of prize money won at the tournament, whichever is greater.

F. Special Exempt/Wild Card Non-Appearance

A player who accepts a wild card or a special exempt pursuant to the procedures set forth under section 7.10, special exempts, shall appear for play. A violation of this section would be considered as a late withdrawal and be subject to the penalties set forth under late withdrawals.

G. Qualifying Non-Appearance

A player who was entered into the qualifying competition pursuant to the provisions set forth under qualifying/sign in or accepts a wild card in qualifying, shall appear for

H. Payment of Fines

The player shall pay all fines to the ATP within ten (10) days after the notice of fine is provided to the player. All collected entry/withdrawal fine amounts, with the exception of Challenger fines, shall be returned to the event from which the fine was incurred.

I. Playing Another event

- 1) No player who has entered and been accepted into the main draw or qualifying of an ATP World Tour or ATP Challenger Tour tournament shall play in any other tennis event during the period of such tournament, except if appropriately released by the ATP. Once a player enters and is accepted into the main draw or qualifying of the singles or doubles competition, he is committed to that tournament for the week, unless released by the Executive Vice President - Rules & Competition or supervisor. A violation of this section shall constitute the Major Offense of Aggravated Behavior.
- 2) A player who has entered and been accepted into the main draw of an ATP World Tour or ATP Challenger Tour tournament shall be permitted to sign-in and compete in the doubles event if he withdraws his singles entry after 12 noon Eastern Time, USA, on the Friday before the tournament provided he is determined by the supervisor, upon written medical advice, to be physically capable to compete on a professional level of play.

The chair umpire may ask the player to respond to such report; thereafter, the chair umpire must make a decision and he either dismisses the report or declares a code violation and assesses a penalty. If a code violation is assessed, then the chair umpire must announce such violation to the player, opponent and spectators. ### o) Continuous Play / Delay of Game

Following the expiration of the warm-up period, play shall be continuous and a player shall not unreasonably delay a match for any cause. A maximum of twenty-five (25) seconds shall elapse from the moment the ball goes out of play until the time the ball is struck for the next point. If such serve is a fault, then the second serve must be struck by the server without delay. The exception is at a ninety (90) second changeover or a one hundred twenty (120) set break. The procedures for enforcing this rule are as follows:

- i) 25 Seconds Between Points.
  - aa) Start stopwatch when the player is ordered to play or when the ball goes out of play.
  - bb) Assess time violation or code violation if the ball is not struck for the next point within the twenty-five (25) seconds allowed. There is no time warning prior to the expiration of the twenty-five (25) seconds.
- ii) Changeover (Ninety (90) Seconds) and Set Break (One Hundred and Twenty (120) Seconds).
  - aa) Start stopwatch the moment the ball goes out of play.

VIII. THE CODE

cc) Announce “15 Seconds” if one or both of the players are still at their chairs and/or have not started toward their playing positions after seventy-five (75) / one hundred and five (105) seconds have elapsed.

dd) Assess time violation or code violation (after medical time-out or treatment) if the ball is not struck for the next point within the ninety (90) / one hundred and twenty (120) seconds allowed provided there has been no interference which prevented the server from serving within that time.

NOTE: When requested by television, “Time” shall be announced after ninety (90) seconds for a changeover and one hundred twenty (120) seconds for a set break.

iii) Time Violations.

Violating a provision of this Section, as server or receiver, shall be penalized by a “Time Violation – Warning” and each subsequent violation shall be penalized as follows:

- Server. When serving the time violation shall result in a “fault”.
- Receiver. When it is determined that the receiver is the cause of the time violation, then the receiver shall be penalized by the assessment of one (1) point penalty. The receiver must also play to the reasonable pace of the server. A Time Violation may be issued in this case prior to the expiration of twenty-five (25) seconds if the receiver’s actions are delaying the reasonable pace of the server. Assess a code violation if the receiver is consistently or obviously delaying the server, thus employing “Unsportsmanlike Conduct”.

Note: A second time violation occurs when a player who has received a prior warning as either the server or receiver is issued another time violation as either server or receiver. Example is Player A had received a warning for not serving within the 25 second limit; later, as receiver, Player A is deemed to not be playing to the reasonable pace of the server. This would be considered a second violation and a point penalty would be issued.

p) Media Conference

- i) All players scheduled to play on televised courts will be required, if requested, to perform a pre-match TV interview on the day of the match (not to exceed 2 minutes in total). The interview may be conducted at either the player’s practice court or as the players approach the court for walk-on as determined by the host and player’s national broadcasters.
